Plan your flying schedule around your business, not the other way round.
The TwinJet Challenger will be there to swiftly transport you from continent to continent, meeting to meeting.

Your office in the sky

Your personal air limousine is cleared for take off.

The TwinJet Challenger CL604 is ready and waiting for you and your colleagues to meet the demands of a busy working schedule.

Travel in complete privacy, the lap of luxury and with the minimum of fuss.

The Challenger can carry up to ten passengers and go as far as London to New York non-stop.

Why wait?

Ready for take off

Welcome aboard.

Think of the Challenger as your high-altitude boardroom. A way to extend the business day as you move from meeting to meeting, or as your gateway to your vacation.

Forget the security queues. Don't worry about the boarding formalities. Fly the Challenger and you'll only be in the airport for a matter of minutes. Then you're on your way.

Your pilot and crew are at your service.

More space than 1st class.
More flexible than 1st class.

The captain checks all is well.

Either enjoy plenty of personal space or hold a confidential business meeting while in the air. The Challenger has the widest cabin in its class and a stand-up height exceeding six feet.

Six large individual seats and a 3/4 seat divan ensure your complete comfort. Need to freshen up before landing? There's a spacious restroom on board.

Cuisine in the clouds.

The well-stocked cellar in the sky.

Sit back and be pampered.

Spacious restroom.

Meals and refreshments can be prepared to your specific requirements in the separate galley.

Need to switch off and relax? There are two large screens to view your favourite DVD's.

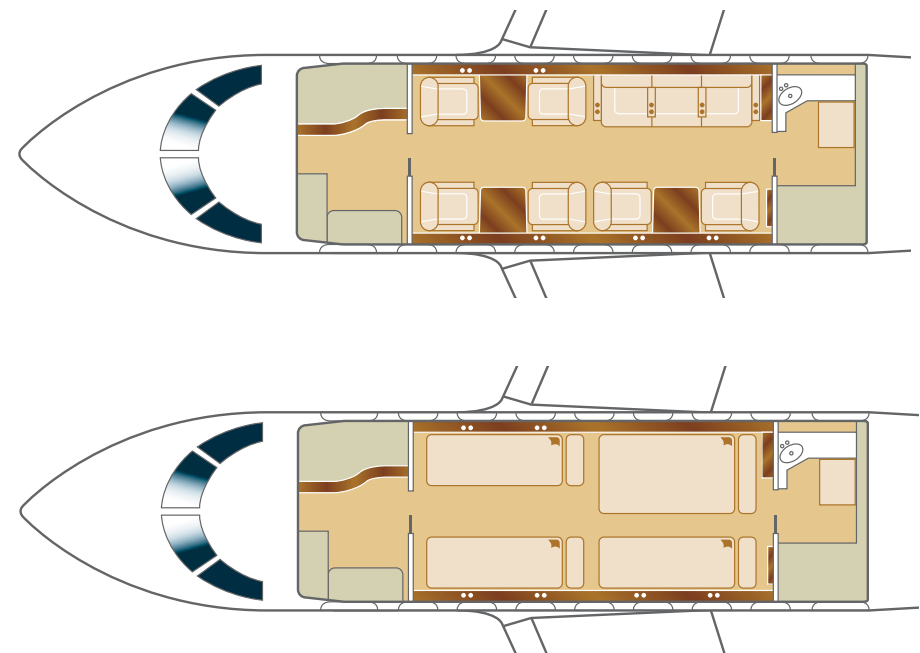

Whether you're conducting business in the air, preparing yourself for important business when you land or simply travelling for pleasure, the Challenger meets the challenge.

Dedicated
cabin staff ensure you arrive
relaxed.
